FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JOHN DRYGULSKI PROMOTED TO SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AT STV

NEW YORK, February 4, 2010 – John Drygulski was promoted to senior vice president of STV. He will continue on as the firm’s northeast regional manager in the Construction Management Division and report to Milo E. Rivero, Ph.D., P.E., president of STV.

Drygulski is a construction management professional with more than 35 years experience in the field. At STV, he oversees all construction management staff in the northeast. In this capacity, he provides executive oversight for the firm’s preconstruction and construction management services for educational, justice, healthcare, institutional and transportation facility projects.

Under his leadership, the northeast has provided construction management services on some of the firm’s largest and most-high profile projects including the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York’s Roosevelt House renovation, the Westchester Community College Gateway Center, a multi-location construction management build contract with the New York City Housing Authority, and the new police academy in Queens, NY, for the New York City Police Department.

Drygulski earned a Bachelor of Science in civil engineering from Manhattan College. He also received Occupational Safety and Health Administration construction safety certification from the Rochester Institute of Technology.

He resides in Bronxville, NY.

With more than 1,700 employees in 34 offices, STV is a leader in providing construction management, engineering, architectural, planning and environmental services for transportation systems, infrastructure, buildings and other facilities. STV is 100 percent employee-owned and maintains a web site at www.stvinc.com.
