FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARK NAY JOINS STV AS VICE PRESIDENT, WESTERN REGION MANAGER

LOS ANGELES, April 1, 2010 – Mark R. Nay, AIA, NCARB, has joined STV as vice president and Western Region manager for the firm’s Buildings and Facilities Division. He will be based in STV’s Los Angeles office and report directly to Maher Z. Labib, P.E., executive vice president and chief operating officer of the Buildings and Facilities Division.

Nay is an accomplished architect with more than 25 years experience in design and management. His diverse portfolio includes higher educational facilities ranging from laboratories to performing arts to residence halls, theater, single-family residential buildings, and comprehensive restaurant systems and facilities design. He also has experience in mixed-use urban development with commercial space, hotel, retail and residential components.

Prior to joining STV, Nay led the design-build sector of an architectural and design firm based in California. He began his career at several high-profile design firms in Los Angeles and eventually started his own firm in Pasadena. There he became active in the community, co-founding two business associations, a neighbor association and earning an appointment to on the city’s design commission.

Nay earned a bachelor’s degree in architecture from the University of Southern California, where he also studied electrical and nuclear engineering. He is a registered architect and a member of the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards. In addition, he is a board member and treasurer for the University of Southern California Architectural Guild, a regent for the California Architectural Foundation, and a member of the Los Angeles County Architectural Evaluation Board.

With employees in 33 offices, STV is a leader in providing architectural, engineering, planning, environmental services and construction management for buildings and facilities, transportation systems, and infrastructure. STV is ranked 49th in Engineering News-Record’s Top 500 Design Firm survey. STV is 100 percent employee-owned and maintains a web site at www.stvinc.com.
